

To Start

|                                                |       |
|------------------------------------------------|-------|
| Greek-style Garlic Bread                       | £5.00 |
| Add cheese £2.00.                              |       |
| Greek Olives V · VG · GF          | £5.00 |
| Marinated in herbs and extra virgin olive oil. |       |

Cold Mezze

|                                                                                         |       |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|
| Honey Feta Dip                                                                          | £7.00 |
| Served with pita.                                                                       |       |
| Tzatziki V · GF                                                            | £7.00 |
| Greek yoghurt, cucumber, garlic and olive oil.Served with pita.                     |       |
| Greek-style Hummus V · VG · GF                                             | £7.00 |
| Chickpeas, tahini and lemon. Served with pita.                                          |       |
| Chargrilled Aubergine V                                                    | £7.00 |
| Smoked aubergine in tomato sauce, topped with crumbled feta. Served with pita.          |       |
| Tirokafteri V                                                              | £7.00 |
| Roasted red peppers blended with feta cheese and chilli.                                |       |
| Ezmeikiaki V                                                               | £7.00 |
| Finely chopped red onion, tomato, crushed chilli and parsley with pomegranate dressing. |       |
| Baba Ganoush V · GF                                                        | £7.00 |
| Charred eggplant, tahini, lemon juice and garlic.                                       |       |
| Taramasalata                                                                            | £7.00 |
| Cod roe dip served with pita.                                                           |       |

Salads

|                                                                                                            |        |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| Chicken Caesar Salad                                                                                       | £15.00 |
| Grilled chicken breast, toasted garlic croutons, Caesar dressing and Parmesan.                             |        |
| Greek Salad                                                                                                | £14.00 |
| Feta, tomatoes, cucumber, red onion, peppers, olives and parsley with olive oil, lemon and thyme dressing. |        |

Hot Mezze

|                                                                           |        |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| Panko Halloumi V                                             | £8.00  |
| Panko-coated halloumi with honey sriracha sauce.                          |        |
| Prawn Saganaki                                                            | £10.00 |
| Spicy tomato, garlic and ouzo sauce with crumbled feta. Served with pita. |        |
| Charcoal Chicken Wings                                                    | £7.50  |
| Served with spicy sauce.                                                  |        |
| Kalamarakia                                                               | £8.00  |
| Crispy panko-breaded baby squid with lemon and a side dip.                |        |
| Filo Roll V                                                  | £7.00  |
| Greek-style triangular pastries filled with spinach and feta.             |        |
| Dolmades V · VG · GF                                         | £7.00  |
| Vine leaves filled with rice, tomato and fresh herbs.                     |        |
| Keftedes                                                                  | £7.50  |
| Beef meatballs with tzatziki and polpette sauce. Served with pita.        |        |
| Loukaniko GF                                                 | £7.50  |
| Greek beef sausage.                                                       |        |
| Garlic Mushrooms GF                                          | £7.00  |
| Butter and mixed herbs.                                                   |        |
| Chilli Garlic Prawns                                                      | £10.00 |
| Fresh prawns, fresh chilli peppers.                                       |        |

Sides

|                    |       |
|--------------------|-------|
| Sweet Potato Fries | £5.00 |
| Fries              | £4.50 |
| Hand-cut Chips     | £4.40 |

From the Grill

|                                                                                                                                                                 |        |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| Platter for Two                                                                                                                                                 | £54.50 |
| Lamb shish (4 pieces), chicken shish (4 pieces), keftedes (1 skewer), chicken wings (4 pieces) and lamb chops (2 pieces). Served with rice, chips and tzatziki. |        |
| Chicken Shish                                                                                                                                                   | £18.00 |
| Marinated chicken cubes grilled on skewers, with rice and tzatziki.                                                                                             |        |
| Lamb Shish                                                                                                                                                      | £22.00 |
| Marinated lamb cubes grilled on a skewer, with rice and tzatziki.                                                                                               |        |
| Lamb Chops                                                                                                                                                      | £25.00 |
| Served with rice and tzatziki.                                                                                                                                  |        |
| Keftedes                                                                                                                                                        | £19.00 |
| Grilled minced lamb with red pepper, onion and herbs, served with rice and tzatziki.                                                                            |        |
| Chicken Wings                                                                                                                                                   | £18.00 |
| Grilled wings with red pepper, onion and herbs, served with rice and tzatziki.                                                                                  |        |
| Halloumi Kebab V                                                                                                                                   | £18.00 |
| Chargrilled halloumi, mushrooms and peppers with sweet chilli sauce and chips.                                                                                  |        |

Pasta

|                                                  |        |
|--------------------------------------------------|--------|
| Spicy Chicken Penne                              | £15.50 |
| Penne with fresh chilli and chicken.             |        |
| Creamy Chorizo Pasta                             | £14.50 |
| Penne, chorizo, herbs, cream and polpette sauce. |        |

Chef's Specials

|                                                                                        |        |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| Kleftiko GF                                                               | £24.00 |
| Braised lamb shoulder on the bone in tomato gravy.                                     |        |
| Moussaka                                                                               | £21.00 |
| Aubergine, courgettes, lamb mince and potatoes, topped with cheese sauce.              |        |
| Stifado                                                                                | £23.95 |
| Braised tender beef in tomato gravy sauce with shallots                                |        |
| Iskendaraki Chicken                                                                    | £18.00 |
| Grilled chicken pieces with bread, tzatziki and tomato butter sauce. Served with rice. |        |
| Iskendaraki Lamb                                                                       | £22.00 |
| Grilled lamb pieces with bread, tzatziki and tomato butter sauce. Served with rice.    |        |
| Chicken Spinach                                                                        | £21.95 |
| Breast of chicken with feta and spinach cooked in a creamy sauce                       |        |
| Sea Bass Fillet GF                                                        | £22.00 |
| On a bed of leeks, with garlic and herb new potatoes and hollandaise sauce.            |        |
| Prawn Sizzler GF                                                          | £22.00 |
| Greek-seasoned prawns, mixed peppers, garlic and onion, served with rice.              |        |
| Chicken Sizzler GF                                                        | £18.00 |
| Greek-seasoned chicken breast, mixed peppers, garlic and onion, served with rice.      |        |

Little Ones

Chicken Shish with Chips

Polpette Penne

Chicken Nuggets with Chips

Cheesy Garlic Bread with Chips

Good food. Good company.

From mezze to the grill, gather around and share the flavours of Greece.

Welcome to MIRO GREEK. Make yourself at home.

JOIN US FOR

Greek Night

The last Friday of every month

End the night the Greek way!